

PUBLIC NOTICE OF REQUEST FOR QUALIFICATIONS

The Fairfield County Regional Planning Commission is requesting Statements of Qualifications from qualified firms, organizations, or individuals for the purpose of providing professional and technical services in relationship to daily duties and activities of the Commission. The Fairfield County Regional Planning Commission (RPC) is responsible for overseeing and coordinating development in Fairfield County, and its membership is comprised of representatives from townships, cities, villages, agencies, and citizens of Fairfield County. The RPC is responsible for administering the Fairfield County Subdivision Regulations, the Fairfield County Flood Damage Prevention Regulations, and providing zoning technical support to the Commission's member communities. The Commission is currently in the process of assisting its member communities with implementing long range plans based upon the county's recently adopted Comprehensive Plan as well as assisting with implementing updated zoning codes that align with the new plan. The Commission also provides grant writing and administrative services to its various member communities and currently serves as the Development Block Grant and Fair Housing administrator for the Fairfield County Board of Commissioners. The Commission is seeking a firm that can assist with all aspects of administering these various regulations and grants.

If you are interested in performing the professional and technical services for the RPC, please review the RFQ located on the RPC's website at www.co.fairfield.oh.us/rpc for details on the requirements for submitting a proposal. All responses must be submitted by 4:00 p.m. on Friday, September 26, 2025.
